

TWP 12

SCHRODER-Wall Coverings Surface Tester System Timperley - new style of construction -

This apparatus is used to evaluate the surface resistance of wall coverings, enabling them to be defined as washable, spongeable or, in case of vinyls, scrubbable and conforms to the standard specification DIN EN 12956.

- Touchscreen Display with active user field
- Identification of the mounted test head
- Surveillance of the different test heads during the period of use
- Automatic pre-setting by test head identification
- Draw up and storage of special tests with individual profile
- Assignment of the tests to the user

Technical Data:

2 test speeds: 30 and 120 movements/min

Sample size: 300 x 150 mm

Exchangeable washing elements: sponge, fell, nylon bristle

Electric connection: 230 V. 50 cps.

Dimensions L x W x H: 400x 350x 350 mm